it takes* <sup>SM</sup>

Marcela Mazo Canola, MD, breast oncologist, delivers leading-edge therapies.

For Dr. Mazo Canola, building strong relationships is key to treating and overcoming cancer. Every day she collaborates with renowned teams of researchers and specialists. At the same time, she works one-on-one with each patient to bring more—the latest treatment options and groundbreaking clinical trials. She brings it all together at Mays Cancer Center, doing everything it takes to help people living with breast cancer be their best.
